

SIESONS REPORT 2018-19

SIESONS, the annual college festival, was held on the 18th and 19th of January 2019. Siesons is a two day intercollegiate festival. It is a biggest festival across Navi Mumbai. The first day of the event began with the inaugural ceremony attended by the Chief guest Deepak Baid CEO of Fortella hospitality ,Principal Dr Milind Vaidya ,Vice principal Dr Koel Roychoudhary , Convenor Ms.Rajeshri Shinkar and Co-convenor Mr.R. Perumal, teaching and non teaching staff and student members of the Student Council.

The lamp was lit by the dignitaries and the SIESONS T shirt was unveiled. Then with a bang began the Dhol-Tasha competition with all teams battling to make their sound of dhol the most enjoyable. It was followed by the solo sing competition graced by Hamsika Iyer, a well known bollywood playback singer and Vaishali Mhade of Pinga fame. Next in line was the duet dance contest graced by Juhi Arora and Pranay Bafna of the DID (Dance India Dance) fame. Fashion show also remained to be the most awaited event as a great story line based on mythology and costumes kept the audience glued to the models across all teams. The diva for the evening, Ms. Mohena Kumari, who was also the judge for this event, flaunted with her moves and kept the enthusiasm on. The second most awaited and the last event for the day was the War of Djs. After all the glam, the people were transported to the world of EDM. It was Dj Shanaya who played the adhesive part between the crowd and the dance floor.

Apart from these events there were some games like paint ball, ballon art etc. Artists from various colleges came over to paint, to speak, flaunt their poetry skills and presence of mind through games like artarium, andha dhund, tale a couture and aqua-de-rella.

The second day started off with some talented personalities on stage from the Talent Hunt. The event was graced by Jyotika Tangri from the music fraternity who squeezed out the talent, out of all contenders. Hindi band competition is what all bollywood junkies fought to attend in order to groove to the hit songs. Bombay Bandook and Samved, two popular bands were there to hear out all the infant bands. The beat boxing event followed the band event. Entire crowd was amazed at the human combination of octopads and drums and percussion. In order to help them rank as good, better and best, Peacorex aka Shubham was present. Freestyle football is something between football and dance and all the participants wowed the crowd with their fluid movements. Owing to the craze of the upcoming film Gully Boy, people flocked in to witness the rapping event graced by Tony Sebastian and Dopadelicz. The last competition was the street style dance event and the XIX Crew was here to mentor the crews present.

Last but not the least, people flocked in large numbers to witness the most awaited event of the festival. Farhan Akhtar, popular bollywood director, actor and singer had graced the occasion, with a power packed concert. Right from Rock on, Senorieta to Havan Kareng, all his songs made people groove at their places.

This brought an end to this great two days fun-filled fest. All the students from and out of the college had a great time and experience with all the events and performances. SIESONS – Era Of Discoveries ( the theme ), as the festival discovered new talent and experience to take ahead in the coming years.
