Report: Multicultural Diversity of Indian Society

26th Aug 2018

India has 29 states with different culture and civilizations and one of the most populated countries in the world. The first year BMS students of SIES, Nerul represented some of these states and made presentations on it.

Several states like Maharashtra, Karnataka, Kerala, Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh were represented beautifully through charts and posters. Students were divided into groups of 8- 10 people. Every group removed detailed information about the state allotted to them and spoke on the states' culture, cuisine, tourism, economic growth and various such factors. Some groups even took the extra effort of singing some of the famous songs in the language spoken by the people of the state and some groups danced to represent the folk dance of the state.

It was a splendid activity that helped the students to refresh themselves from daily lectures and to give them knowledge on various unknown facts about different states of India.

Venue: Quadrangle

No. of Participants: Open for all students

On the 12th October 2018, the Cultural Committee organized a Garba and Dandiya Eve in College campus to celebrate Navratri amongst students and teachers. Further, this event was meant as a social cause initiative and accordingly the members of Adhata Trust, a Mumbai based NGO for elderly became special invitees for the evening. In order to make them comfortable with the environment, the Quadrangle was made exclusively from 4:00pm to 5:00pm. Thereafter, the students were permitted to enter the quadrangle with the help of the coupon distributed to them from 3 days prior, from 5:00pm and it continued till 9:00pm. The crescendo of this celebration was the announcement of the Best Dressed and the Best Dancer (Male and Female) prizes by the Principal Dr. Milind Vaidya.

It may be certainly said that Students and Adhata members enjoyed the event arranged by the committee to the fullest.. This event brought forth the very purpose of Indian festivals like Garba and Dandiya – to bring people together, spread joy and create moments of bliss in routine life. Atleast for elderly, it was a day of memories to cherish for the rest of their lives. Thus, the Garba and Dandiya Eve gave a sense of fulfillment and purposefulness to the Committee as a whole.

Approximately 200 - 250 students had participated in the event.

CROSSWORDS & SPELL BEE

15th October, 2018

12:00 noon

A Crosswords and Spell Bee Competition was organized, on the 15th of October 2018.

The purpose of the event was to promote English language skills in a fun and engaging manner.

The dignitaries present were Principal Dr. Milind Vaidya and the convener Dr. Indumathi B.

The event started at 12 in the afternoon and Indumathi madam was called upon the dais to address the audience and she wished the participants as well as the volunteers best of luck. It was followed by a short introduction to crosswords where the origins of crossword were discussed. At 10 minutes past noon, the Rules of the crossword game were discussed and the participants were called upon the stage, what followed was an awe-inspiring round of crosswords, the altered format of the game where the puzzle was on a big chart paper added to the difficulty of the game but the participant's wits and great presence of mind kept the audience on their toes. At the end of the crossword competition, which went on for half an hour, the participants left everyone impressed with their puzzle solving skills.

And this uplifting mood in the AV-Room helped the organizers to perfectly segue into the next event the Spell Bee competition and fittingly enough the audience was as hyped or more for the competition to start. The rules of the competition were quickly explained and Indumathi mam once again proved to be a guiding light by giving invaluable tips to the Spell Bee participants. With just a few minutes to 1:00, the round of Spell Bee started although the words were meticulously chosen to be tricky, the participants left no doubt in anyone's mind that they were actually ready to grab the title of "Spell Bee". Once more a spectacular competition ensued, the competition was so fierce that the winner had to be decided by a tie-breaker.

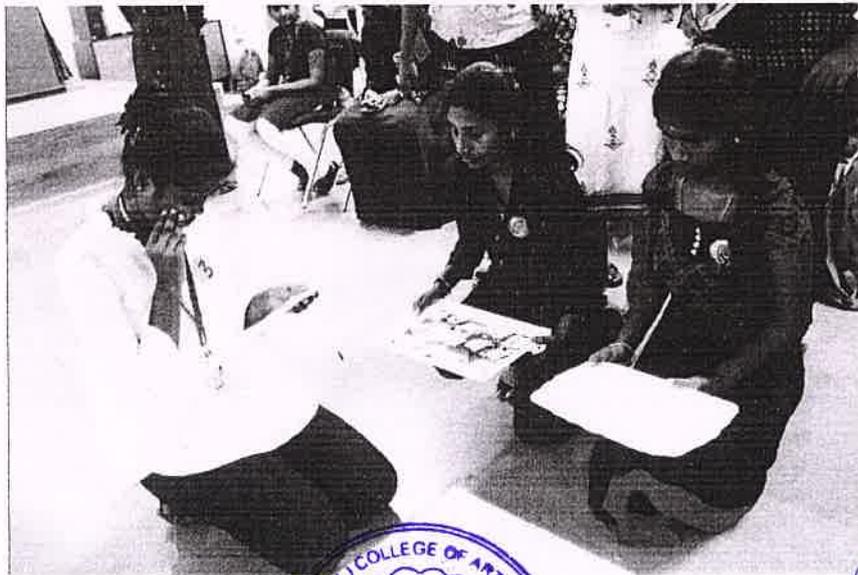

20 minutes after the commencement of the Spell Bee competition, the winners were finally declared. Induja claimed the spot of the "Champion of Crosswords", while Anisha was unanimously declared the winner of the Spell Bee competition. A few closing words were given by Indumathi mam after which the mentor and former chairperson of the English Literary Association, Shijoy had a conversation with the participants where they discussed suggestions to make this already grand event even more magnificent.

Report

Dandiya Eve

Date: 23rd September 2017

Venue: Quadrangle

Guest / Resource Person: Members of Adhata Trust, Mumbai

No of participants : Open for all students

On the 23rd September 2017, the Cultural Committee organised a Dandiya Eve in the college campus to celebrate Navratri amongst students and teachers. Further, this event was meant as a social cause initiative and accordingly the members of Adhata Trust, a Mumbai based NGO for the elderly became special invitees for the evening. In order to make the environment comfortable for the older participants, the Quadrangle was made available to teachers and the Adhata members exclusively from 4pm to 5pm. Thereafter, the students were admitted from 5pm onwards and the Dandiya Eve continued till 9 pm. To add to the colour of the evening, food stalls were set up for Adhata members and teachers. The crescendo of this celebration was the announcement of the Best Dressed and Best Dancer (Male & Female) prizes by the Principal Dr. Milind Vaidya. To add to this, Dr. V. Shankar, President, SIES coincidentally visited the Campus and joined the event to everyone's surprise and delight.

It may be certainly said that students, teachers and the Adhata members enjoyed the treat arranged by the Committee to the fullest; it was a heart touching sight to see three generations sharing love, fun, and food. This event brought forth the very purpose of Indian festivals like Dandiya – to bring people together, spread joy and create moments of bliss in routine life. At least for the elderly, it was a day of memories to cherish for the rest of their lives; “We felt young and alive again”, said one of the Adhata members with tearful eyes. Thus, the Dandiya Eve gave a sense of fulfilment and purposefulness to the Committee as a whole.

Report on EXEL 2017

EXEL 2017 'Evolution Revolution' organized by the Department of Commerce (BCom) on 21st December 2017 was an outstanding event which made an unforgettable impression on its audience. Everything from the very theme of the event and its various segments like Assembly of Commerce, Spectacle, Extravaganza, and Fixture were unique in their nomenclature, vision and execution.

Elaborating on the theme of the event 'Evolution Revolution', Ms. Sugandha Jha the Coordinator of BCom mentioned, "They are two propellants of human progress! The course of human development is marked by revolutionary mutations that signify progress and futuristic ideas. Say, for instance the very evolution of man himself from an ape to a homosapien was nothing less than a marvel. However, it didn't stop there. Man moved forward to master various skills, acquire knowledge and create a civilized way of life. Today, man has come so far that he has turned cyborgs and humanoids into a reality. This trajectory of evolution is a revolutionary one with astonishing accomplishments by man in the field of science, technology, and commerce. It underlines the compulsion for man to incessantly think and envision a future which is better than the present. Thus, Man is a living metaphor for the concept of 'Evolution Revolution'. So, the Department of Commerce (BCom) the theme for EXEL 2017- 'Evolution Revolution' with a hope to create a platform for productive deliberations that in turn will ignite the imagination of young minds and encourage them to add to this journey of evolution revolution!"

The first segment of Guest Lectures called Assembly of Commerce was graced with the presence of an eminent academicians like Dr. Radhakrishnan Pillai (Founder-Director, CIPL) and Mr. Utkarsh Patel (Mythologist- Author and Founder of Talking Myths Project). The highlight of this segment was the Book Release of Dr. Pillai's books namely Chankya Net and Chanakya in Daily Life. Further, the presence of Celebrity Guests like Mr. Bhara Sharma (Fashion Model/ Actor) and Mr. Hanson Kotain (Stand Up Comedy Artist) added colour to the event. In addition, the poster making competition, business quiz, games – all of which were based on the theme of the day made the entire fest a educative as well a entertaining event.

All in all the zest of the students and faculty members together made this academic fest successful where Excellence Extended to Learning and Entertainment effectively.

ENIGMA

Respected Sir/ Madam,

We cordially invite you to join us at Enigma 2016, the annual cultural fest of R. A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics, Mumbai.

Small beginnings are no indication of where you will finally end up. Likewise, what started out as a humble alternative festival 10 years ago has grown on to become one of the largest college festivals with a difference in the sentient city of Mumbai.

Over the years, 'ENIGMA' has evolved at every instance, in every aspect, bringing each year a different, innovative, creative and a vibrant theme with it. This year's concept, a first in its kind brings up the wars that made a revolting and rather revolutionary change in the entire world, a flashback to the past, to battles that can never be forgotten, to create an extravaganza filled with fun, fiction and fluence.

Enigma – An Unfair War-fair, will take place from 26th - 28th August 2016. Of course, none of this will be possible without you. It would be our privilege to have the creative vibrancy of the students from your esteemed institution add to the overall effervescence of Enigma 2016

We look forward to the confirmation of your participation and hope that you will reply at the earliest.

Yours respectfully,

ENIGMA - PODAR COLLEGE INTERCOLLEGIATE FEST

Contingent Leader - Arun Kutty (SYBMS)

Asst. Contingent Leader - Shweta Godekar (SYBMS)

Asst. Contingent Leader - Sumit Yadav (FYBFM)

The rain was one factor motivating the SIES (Nerul) Contingent to pack soon enough to reach on time to register for Enigma , the Annual Intercollegiate fest of R.A. Podar College (Matunga) on the 26, 27, 28 and 29th of August which undoubtedly were some of the most vibrant and enthusiastic days to remember.

Having registered mainly for sport events as the bidding process at the Contingent Meet had driven our focus towards it, we did come out with some flying colours by winning the second prize in Football and third prize in Relay. We also bagged the prize of Best Player in Football. Out of 29 teams from colleges all over Mumbai, ours was the only team to have a girl player. We also participated in numerous other events, few being Solo Singing, Quiz, Painting, Fifa 16 etc which gave the students so much of experience and a great learning opportunity. We also secured the second position in the Online Photography contest conducted by the organisers through Facebook.

Enigma was yet another opportunity to help showcase the wit of the students of SIES Nerul and moreover a learning opportunity. We were inspired by the crisp organisation of the fest and the warm hospitality extended to us.

DEPARTMENT FEST
EPOCH 2016 – Mysterio Iris.
13.12.2016

“Every solution to every problem is simple. It’s the distance between the two where the mystery lies.” – Derek I.

The theme of this year’s fest was “Mysterio Iris” - An eye to solve the mysteries of the world.

One cannot help but be in awe when he contemplates the mysteries of eternity, of life, of the marvellous structures of reality. It is enough if one tries merely to comprehend a little of this mystery each day. Thus, the theme of this year's Epoch was 'Mysterio Iris', which had events that were fun filled, but needed a skill for search, spiced up with a little knowledge in the field of Finance.

The Fest started with an inauguration ceremony at the AV Room with the traditional lighting of the lamp by our Respected Principal Ms. Koel Roy Choudhury, Our esteemed faculty Dr. Priyanka Mohan, Mrs. Rajalakshmi, and Mrs. B. Indumathi and the Chief Guest Mr. Anuj Tiwari. There was a welcome dance by a student of SY BAF which received a special appreciation from the Principal.

The Principal released the Epoch T-shirt and declared the fest open.

Mr. Anuj Tiwari is a renowned author and also a TEDX speaker. He motivated the students and made them understand that life will always throw curved balls at you but one should know how to tackle them.

This was the first year that EPOCH was made an intercollegiate event. A number of colleges from Mumbai and Navi Mumbai participated in various games.

A plethora of talent was showcased by the students by participating in the wide array of events organised for them by the organising team of Epoch. There was a event for promoting every kind of talent. 'Game of monopoly' and 'Escapology' brought out the competitive spirit of the participants and urged everyone to give their best in the event. 'Bth sense' and 'Brand mania' brought out the innovating spirit in every student in the most exciting way possible. 'Art rush' and 'Twist of tales' gave a platform to artistic minds. And games like 'Wheel of fortune' and 'JAM' kept participants on their toes the entire time.

The Creatives Team of EPOCH added beauty to every event in many ways which was a treat to the eyes of the audience.

There was NMTV coverage for the fest.

The fest drew to a close with a sense of satisfaction for both the staff and students alike because EPOCH 2016 had a highly desired input of unity and team work among the students of all the three years and a greatly appreciated output of well co-ordinated, theme related events.

2016-17

REPORT on "SYNERGY 2016"

On 19th November, 2016, SIES COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE (NERUL) witnessed another fabulous year of BCOM Banking and Insurance Fest 'SYNERGY-16'. As people say time once spent never returns. Similarly, enthusiasm and enjoyment never returns the same. Instead it grows better every time. This year Synergy was back with more creativity and enthusiasm.

The theme for Synergy-2016 was 'RETRO TO METRO'. The students of BCOM Banking and Insurance came up with this competitive theme and brought justice to it. Synergy commenced with the Opening Ceremony. Opening ceremony began with lamp lighting by BBI faculties and continued with beautiful dance performance by Third year and Second year students of BBI. The ceremony finished by inaugurating the Synergy T-Shirts. Later on Seminar was conducted on the most trending topic- 'Demonitization'. Around 26 colleges participate in the various activities.

Finally, it was time to have fun and showcase teamwork skills as events began. Synergy-2016 brought an interesting event this year in addition to the previous ones (Treasure Hunt, Mind sparks, Insurance Box Football, etc.) i.e. BBI Rodies. BBI Rodies was a game of challenges for the daring ones. Synergy 2016 was lightened up with the active participation from students from SIES COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE (NERUL) and from various other colleges.

After all the events were conducted smoothly and winners were announced it was time for the best part of the fest, Prizing Ceremony. All participants played very well, but the best ones won. REPORT: FRAMES 2017

Frames Film Festival, a concept made reality by the BMM department of SIES Nerul, has bid adieu until next year, with the curtains being drawn on its 14th Edition.

This year, Frames brought with it the will to be different from its predecessors, creating an identity for itself by gaining immense support from the media industry, having been powered by 9XO and 9XM.

Frames has always provided a foundation for amateur and enterprising film makers globally, to showcase their films. This year it also gave them a chance to grow under the guidance of the highly accomplished panelists.

The pivotal aspect that set the fest off on an exuberant start was having veteran actor Prem Chopra as the chief guest for the inauguration. Commencing the festival on a highly satisfactory note, the festival didn't experience any downfall across the span of three days.

Nitya Mehra, Jasmine Sandlas, Nikhil Paul George, Jay Oza, Kanu Behl, Varun Gupta were a few out of the many established celebrities on the panel for over 7 categories.

The festival concluded with the award ceremony, the awards were presented by Shibani Kashyap. FFF has continually astonished the audience with the standards it sets every year, aiming to grow with every edition.

The 14th edition has done just that, learnt from its predecessors and set an example for its successor. FFF was indeed an amalgamation of culture through the magic of moving pictures.

"I'm overwhelmed by the enthusiasm showed by these youngsters. I'm sure such film festivals organised at the college level will produce a number of actors, directors and filmmakers in our country." Prem Chopra

"BMM as a course in SIES Nerul has always aimed at promoting students to think out of the box. Frames, with its every edition has shown its potential to become a global film phenomena." Dr. Koel Roy Chaudhary, Principal of SIES, Nerul.

"It's an extremely well arranged program by the BMM department of SIES. It's a student oriented program, where students showcase their excellence by organizing a fest as big as Frames." Dr. Prof. Priyadarshani Poddar.

The first day also marked the screening of Short Films. The national short films judged by celluloid geniuses such as Ashwini Tiwari, Kiran Deohans and Attar Singh Saini.

The international short films judged by renowned directors- Nitya Mehra and Kanu Behl.

The second day was booked for the screening of Documentary Films, Ad Films and Contingent Films.

Documentary Film panel was graced by Jay Oza and Manish Bhatt. Ad Films were judged by Manish Bhatt, Parul Gulati and Bharat Dabholkar. Contingent Films an amalgamation of BMM movies where colleges having Mass Media as a course send in films directed by them. This category was judged by Varun Gupta and Alok Ulfat.

The third day that brings in a closure to this huge film fiesta, screened Animation Films, Music Videos and hosted the awards ceremony. The animation films were judged by Munjal Shroff, Shilpa Ranade and Narayan Shi. Music Video got its dose of glamour with celebrities like Jessica Sandlas and Nikhil Paul George and mesmerized the audience with soulful voices.

Frames Film Festival ended on a grand and nostalgic note for all the volunteers and the organizing committee of the BMM department at SIES COLLEGE Nerul. With the next edition that is a long way to come the students are already all geared up and excited about what they are coming year has in store for them

Frames is a culture that is a part of every BMM student. There is no end for us because this 14 year living legacy continues to grow majestic in the wake of people who are passionate behind the science of filmmaking.

SIESONS 2017

Report

Date 21st January

SIESONS is a two day annual college festival of SIES (Nerul) college, wherein students from all over Mumbai participate. Since the past 19 years SIESONS has grown massively and soared great heights. This year was no different. SIESONS has set new benchmarks this year in terms of quality events, footfall and college décor. The college was swarming with people on the 20th and 21st of January. There was an estimated footfall of 20,000 people.

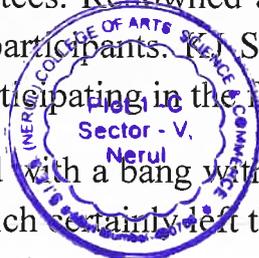

The festival started with the inauguration ceremony, where our trustee member Vishwanathan Sir, GST Principal Mr. Patil, Principal Ms. Koel Roy Choudhary, convenor Prof. Sheeja Ravi, Co-Convenor Prof. Rajashri Shinkar and secretaries Rohan and Vaidehi lit the auspicious lamp and summoned the blessings of God.

The theme of SIESONS 2017 was 'Kaliyug: Awakening of Sins'. Only Evil can destroy Evil, thus our aim was to bring peace in this dark era by using the seven deadly sins in a positive way.

The first day of SIESONS 2017 saw eminent advertisement media personality Mr. Keigan Pinto coming and gracing the occasion of SIESCONS- a Conclave for teachers and students. He enlightened the audience with the talks of his journey as a media person and gave some meaningful piece of advice to the listeners.

The four event committees ensured that every talent got a platform, the charmers had performing arts, the artistic had fine art, the athletic had crossovers and the wise had literary arts. In all, around 48 events were organized by these committees. Renowned artists graced these events to judge the budding talent of the participants. Somaiyyas College was awarded the best college for actively participating in the festival.

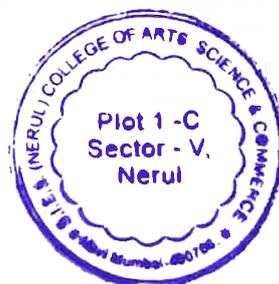

The festival came to an end with a bang with an enthralling performance by the coveted band SANAM, which certainly left the audience in a daze.

SYNERGY 2015

The students of Banking and Insurance department lived up to their crafted motto, "Energize, Enrich, Empower" emerging larger and grander than ever before setting up new levels.

SYNERGY 2015 was an amalgamation of the spirit of altruism, joy and knowledge. The fest wasn't just for a day, it started with the students organising an event for NGO kids on 28th November, 2015.

SYNERGY- A Ray of Hope (Social Initiative) (28th November'15)

Giving full justice to the adage "Service to mankind, is service to god", the students of B.Com (Banking and insurance) of SIES college, Nerul kick started the pre celebration of their departmental fest 'SYNERGY' with a social initiative named "RAY OF HOPE", which was held on 28th November, where 60-70 under-privileged children from 3 NGO's namely Seva Sahayog (Nerul), Amruth Prerna (Seawoods) and Blessings (Seawoods) visited the college to celebrate the joy of life.

As a part of the interaction, activities like GK quiz, talent hunt competition which included singing, dancing and drawing competition and some games like Bucket and the Ball game, Musical Chair and the Straw game were also conducted for the kids. Winners in each competition were given prizes to encourage these underprivileged children. A small token of memento was also distributed to make it more memorable day.

Apart from the games, to make sure they received adequate food, we even conducted Foodgrain (Rice & Wheat) donation drive for a week where a total of 750kgs of rice and wheat was collected with help of students, teaching and non teaching staff of our college. 125kgs of wheat and 125 kgs of rice were donated to each of 3 NGO's.

THE PRE-EVENT & THEME RELEASE (11th December'15)

To make sure that SYNERGY reaches each and every student, the team came up with an idea for a very uniquely designed Pre-Event and Theme Release for which they worked extremely hard. It was unique because the students decided to think out of the box again like last year and organised flash mob in form of enacting acts of events and release of theme "ENRICH INDIA". The idea behind the pre-event was to promote the festival and tell people what SYNERGY 2015 has to offer this year through its theme. This idea was hugely appreciated by the viewers.

EPOCH 2015-16

6th January 2016

The students of Bachelors of Commerce in Accounting and Finance (BAF) of SIES, Nerul organized their annual departmental fest EPOCH. In its seventh year, the theme this year was COLORS OF REVERIE meaning that all the dreams which you have envisaged get fulfilled, that EPOCH is where you live the day of your dreams. It was an inter-collegiate fest which saw participation from the sister colleges of SIES.

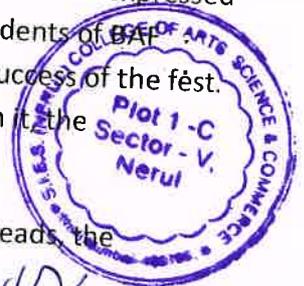

The fest kick started with the core faculty of BAF lighting the lamp, beginning the fest on an auspicious note. There were a wide range of events lined up for the fest. The events pertained to the field of accounting and finance, but all had interesting twists. The first being Finance and Fortune, which was a mixture of general knowledge as well as bidding saw the participants showing their financial management skills. The next was WAR AGAINST TIME wherein the participants (here, a team of two) had to complete the given tasks in a minute. Then there was a spray painting event SPILL D SPRAY. While some paintings depicted the painter's interests, the others conveyed social messages.

KARRY A TUNE was a karaoke singing competition where the participants sang both old as well as new songs. STEP UP TO TOLLYWOOD was a group dance competition which was judged by MR. PRADEEP AND RIDGE. POOL IT turned out to be a major success. It was a blend of pool and football where the players played football on a life sized maze.

MR and MS EPOCH (fashion-e-fatale) was the flagship event of EPOCH which saw participation from other departments. All in all, the fest had something for everyone. The fest was designed such that individuals with varied interests could take part in the various competitions held in the fest.

After all the events, there was a closing ceremony held in the AV room where the prize distribution took place. Later the faculty as well as the chairpersons who helmed this fest expressed their views upon the same. After the closing ceremony, there was a DJ for the students of BAF where everybody let their hair down heaving a sigh of relief and celebrating the success of the fest. The fest was not just about enjoyment but it also taught everyone associated with it the importance of responsibility, teamwork and efforts.

It was not just the participants who lived a day of their dreams but the heads, the volunteers and each and every individual associated with the fest.

Report on Social Cause

Like every year, Epoch 2015–16 was organised not just to put forth the organising skills of the students of Bachelors of Accounting and Finance and have a day full of fun through the innovative events, but also to establish that fun can always be accompanied by responsible behaviour towards the society. This is the reason why epoch did not falter in associating itself with a social cause.

In the light of an alarming increase against the women in our society, the organising team thought no issue was as grave to be associated with, as the issue of 'Women Safety'.

The team was of the opinion that 'awareness is the key to change'. They hence decided to take up an awareness activity at mass level that would help shatter the myths of women being the 'weaker sex' and the stereotypical dominance they face.

A few students from the organising team performed a street play on the stations of Nerul and vashi, amassing huge crowd every time it was performed. The play aptly brought out the message of women being a goddess's avtar in reality who can unleash it the moment things go beyond limit. The cheers from the crowd gave the team content of having taken up such an activity. The team was thus successful in creating the desired awareness.
