Pongal and Sankranti Celebrations

The South Indian Association started the New Year 2020 with Pongal and Sankranti Celebrations in the College premises on 13th of January 2020 in the Quadrangle from 11 am. This celebration aimed at presenting a contrasting visual of harvest festivals celebrated in three states namely, Telangana, Andhra Pradesh, and Tamil Nadu.

The celebrations started with the lighting of the lamp, followed by the inaugural address by the Principal Dr. Milind Vaidya. Thereafter, Ms. Padmaleela D. (Coordinator, BSc CS, and Member, SIA) spoke about Sankranti - the harvest festival of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, and Dr. Indumati B. (Faculty, BAF, and Member, SIA) spoke about Pongal - the Tamil harvest festival.

The festivities were conducted in the Quadrangle, which was setup like a village, giving a spectacle of any Tamil or Telugu household on the day of Pongal or Sankranti respectively. The SIA Members had prepared a spot in the quadrangle with sugarcanes tied together and an earthen pot set in between to prepare the traditional delicacy for the day - Pongal. In addition, a portrait of the Sun God and Rain God Indra, miniatures of huts, and life size cows and bulls signifying the traditional sport 'Jallikattu' played on the occasion, altogether set the mood for the day.

On one end a group of girls, lit fit to the preparation of pongal invoking the blessings of the almighty, while on the other end the members of SIA performed songs in both Tamil and Telugu, and folk performances like Karakattam. However, the highlight of the event was the skit performed by the student members showcasing the mythological story behind the rituals and celebrations related to these harvest festivals. As though in a very organic manner, the pongal was cooked by the time the story was enacted - a moment of blessedness which was shared by the SIA members and onlookers.

Finally, the Pongal was served to everyone fresh and hot from the pot, and the students sought blessings from the teachers. Thereafter, as per tradition the students moved on the authentic games played as a part of the festival including splitting sugarcanes, balloon popping, arm wrestling and the like.

All in all it was an exercise filled with fun and information.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2016-17
SOCIAL INITIATIVE RALLY

DISABILITY

Date: December 3rd, 2016

Venue: SIES College, Nerul, Navi Mumbai.

Disability? Lack of limbs? Lesser thing to worry about, the differently abled might say. 3rd December, is celebrated worldwide as the International Day of Disabled Persons. This was started by the UN in 1992 as a measure to motivate them and also to create a better and friendly society for them. The theme decided for 2016 states 'Achieving 17 Sustainable Development Goals for the Future We Want.'

All the reforms that take place starts at a grass root level. A society where a person who is handicapped is looked at with sympathy and pity, and not empathy and compassion has to be changed. What better place to start such an act of altruism than a College.

This year the students of SIES (Nerul) College of Arts, Science and Commerce became a part of this celebration with extreme dedication, and the natural youthful exuberance the students have. The motto of the event was 'Taking an Initiative to Organize, Celebrate, and Take Efforts in Creating an Inclusive Society.' Organizing department of the event was B.Com. (Financial Markets) and B.Com. (Banking & Insurance). The guidance required for organizing the event was provided by the Principal Ms. KoelRoyChoudhury. The organizing committee was divided into two; into group of teachers and students. Core Faculty included Ms. Priyanka dukhande (Co-ordinator BFM/ Head), Ms. LataLokhande (Co-ordinator BBI/ Head), Ms. Bhumika More, Ms. BabitaKakkar, and Mr. R. Perumal. The Core Student Heads were Ms. VaishaliPatil (BFM), Ms. Komal V. (BFM), Ms. Asha B. (BBI), Ms. Shraddha K (BBI), and Ms. PranaliPatil (BBI). The event organized included a rally and an educative and captivating skit.

The preparations started with making of various charts, pamphlets, banners and posters and with rehearsals of the play.

The event started with the reveal of a banner by the Principal of the college. It started around 10am where all the students came together from various streams dressed in orange, blue, and white. They started the rally from the college holding high the banner which stated 'Break Barriers, Open Doors; an Inclusive Society for All.' Teachers, students and various other volunteers were a part of this rally. They walked from the premises of the college to Nerul Railway Station where the students performed their skit. Then it continued its journey back taking a different route passing ShaneshwarMandir and SBI Colony with an intention of covering more places and spreading more awareness. The rally covered a distance of 4 kilometers. All the way the students in unison kept on chanting slogans like 'ViklaangVikalaangNaiHote' and 'We Don't Need Sympathy, We Need Support' amidst the inveterate cacophony of the city. The rally concluded at the college by 12pm. The participants of the rally included 520 Students, 35 Teachers, and 15 Non-Teaching Staff Members.

The skit performed, lay bare in front of the on-lookers the various achievements of disabled people worldwide. The students flaunted how the specially challenged people faced all the challenges head on and came out not just as survivors but as legends. Many pamphlets were given away to various bystanders. The handout not only included the occasion and its description but also a small instruction on how to mingle with a specially challenged person eliminating any kind of awkwardness.

This act which has the potential of triggering new thoughts and actions will help not only help the disabled but also will be the beginning of a new society; a society where people will be defined by their achievements and not their imperfections and deformities. A society filled not with virulent vermin and bullies but with sensible and clear minded people having affinity and compassion towards the lesser fortunate and specially gifted ones.
