Events of semester 2 2014-15

An Information Literacy workshop on Tools & Techniques for Discovering the Scholarly Information for Teaching, Research & Publications by Mr Santosh Hulagabali - Librarian, Nagindas Khandwala College was held in the month of December 2014. The aim was create awareness about research tools & techniques available on the internet amongst the faculty members & post graduate students

A books exhibition was also held in the library during December 2014 in order to expose students / faculty / non teaching staff to an eclectic collection of books by numerous publishers on varied subjects be it syllabus / subject related , fiction , non fiction , health , career related etc

Along with these aspects , the library committee is now making an effort to create a student wing for the first year students of all the streams in order to create more awareness regarding library activities and also to organize student centric events / activities related to the library in the future.
