FASES ASSOCIATION

Report on Elocution Competition

Date: - 29th January 2022

Time: - 11.00 am to 1.00 pm

No. of participants – 12 (7 girls, 5 boys)

Platform: Microsoft Teams

The Objective of the event was to spread awareness about the Gandhian principles and thoughts and to focus on relevance and application of these valuable principles in modern times.

Report of Event:

FASES is the acronym for Faith, Ahimsa, Satyagraha, Equality and Swaraj. The objective is to imbibe the values, morals and principles of our eminent leader Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi amongst the youth. And being his followers it's our responsibility to make people aware about his valuable teachings.

The FASES ASSOCIATION organized Elocution Competition to Commemorate Martyr's Day on 29th January 2022, on the platform of MS Teams from 11am to 1pm. The event started with greeting the audience and continued by lighting of lamp. It was followed by Welcoming the principal Madam, Dr. Koel Roy Choudhury along with the judges of competition MS. Nutan Sawant, Faculty member from IT department and MS Priyanka Gogri, from Department of Accountancy. Both the Judges graced the event with their encouraging words.

The topic of competition was "Relevance of Gandhian principles in modern times". The competition began after the rules were read for students. All the participants expressed their views with confidence. Students spoke on different Gandhian principles such as Ahimsa, Truth, Swadeshi etc. They spoke about the importance and relevance of these principles in modern times. They also gave some examples of our day-to-day life where these principles can be applied effectively.

The winners of the competition were Muskaan Uppal on first position and Rajeshwari Kumar on second position. The event summed up with a vote of thanks by the co-head of FASES Association.

The online event organized by FASES Association was successful with a good number of audiences.

Library Committee

An online interactive session on Reading , Writing and Authorship

On December 20th, the library committee organized an online session on the topic Reading , Writing and Authorship. Its purpose being to improve the writing , communication and vocabulary skills of the students. The seminar was open to all the students of the college.

The session began with an introduction about the programme. Then the Principal Dr Koel Roy Choudhury addressed the students and encouraged them to focus on their reading and writing skills. The guest speaker for the event was Mr Arjun Hemmady , two time published author , freelance sports journalist and finance professional – Treasury Manager , Thomas Cook with lots of prior experience in finance. He is the author of the two books You Raise me up and Captain Khadoos.

He spoke in detail about how he got into the field of writing , his roadblocks , the lessons he learnt and also gave tips on getting ones work published. He used a power point presentation to elaborate. There were approximately 40 people were in attendance – about 10 female and 30 male attendees. Towards the end attendees shared their queries and doubts and also shared their views.

The talk was then followed by a detailed Question and Answers session wherein some of the queries/doubts of the students were answered by the guest speaker. The online event reached its end with the vote of thanks. Following the vote of thanks, the students were requested to fill the feedback form in order to receive the e-certificate. The feedback was positive and students responded saying they enjoyed the session and found it both enjoyable and informative.
