LIBRARY COMMITTEE EVENT

SEMESTER 1 2021 – 22

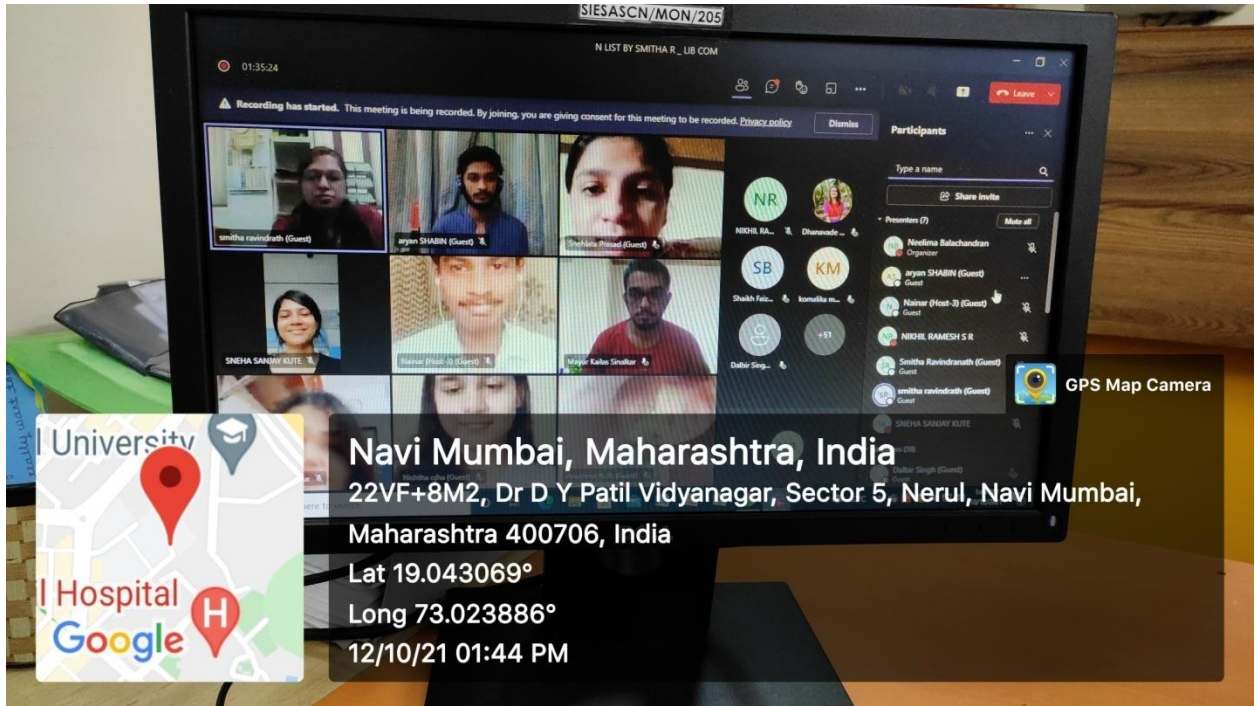

An interactive session on N-List (National Library and Information services Infrastructure for scholarly content.) by the Library Committee

On October 12th, The library committee organized an online session on the e resource N-List (National Library and Information services Infrastructure for scholarly content.) Its purpose being to spread awareness among the students about N-List and its functions. The event was open to all the students of the college.

The programme commenced with an introduction about the programme. Then the Principal Dr Koel Roy Choudhury addressed the students and later introduced the newly formed student wing of the library committee. This was its first event for the academic year. Also present were both the librarian Ms Neelima Balchandran and the Assistant Librarian Ms Nikita Bane.

After the introduction, the guest speaker for the event Ms Smitha Ravindranath, Librarian of Bunts Sanghas S M Shetty College of Science, Commerce, Management Studies was then called upon to start her presentation. Ms. Smitha spoke in detail about the importance of N-List, its contents, access to varied e books and e journals via N-List, how to download useful articles and how N-List could be used for academics and research activities. She used a power point presentation.

There were approximately 120 people in attendance – 100 female and 20 male attendees. 4 to 5 faculty members were also present. During the seminar, attendees shared their queries and doubts regarding N-List and asked the Guest speaker to elaborate more on some of its functions. The talk was then followed by a Question and Answers session wherein some of the queries/doubts of the students were answered by the guest speaker herself. There were many queries that were put forth asking the speaker to elaborate and these were answered. As it concluded, the online event reached its end with the vote of thanks. Following the vote of thanks, the students were requested to fill the feedback form in order to receive the e-certificate. The feedback was positive and students expressed their keen desire to use N-List.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE BOOK CLUB SESSIONS

During the academic year the student wing of the Library Committee also formed an online Book Club. The purpose being to create a forum for book lovers to meet and interact and share their views on reading , books , authors and any other aspects related to books.

Two interactive sessions were held in semester 2. One on 25th February 2022 and the other on 21st March 2022. The students who joined in actively discussed the latest books they had read , the ones they wanted to read and also which authors fascinated them. They exchanged views and enjoyed the lively chat.

.During the second session , student writer Ms Mitali Munot of SYBMS also joined in. She shared her experiences and how she got into the field of writing. And also details of publishing. Over all these informal sessions helped the students to express themselves freely and bond over books, Both the sessions were also attended by ex BAMMC student Brian Fernando.
