GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO PAPER-SETTERS AT THE EXAMINATIONS IN ALL THE FACULTIES

1. Paper-setters shall abide by these instructions and treat them, and such other instructions (and information) as may be issued to them thereafter, as confidential.
The Board of Examinations reserve the right to with hold or reduce the remuneration earned by Paper-setters or cancel their appointments for negligence of any kind on their Part in carrying out the work entrusted to them, in accordance with the instructions issued to them.
2. Paper-setters shall submit three different sets of question-papers (and not copies), each in a separate cover for each paper in the subject.
PROCEDURE PRESCRIBED FOR THE SETTLING OF QUESTION-PAPERS WHERE SEPARATE BOARDS OF PAPER-SETTERS AND EXAMINERS ARE APPOINTED AT THE FIRST YEAR, SECOND YEAR AND THIRD YEAR B.A., B.Sc., AND B.COM. EXAMINATIONS.
3. Each Paper-setter shall submit to the Chairman in a sealed envelope ten questions for each full paper by the date to be fixed in that behalf and communicated to the Paper-setters by the Chairman.
The Chairman shall convene a meeting of all the Paper-setters in the subject for discussing these questions. The Chairman alone shall settle the question-papers finally and shall submit them to the University, the Chairman being at liberty to include or not to include any of the questions submitted by other Paper-setters.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CHAIRMAN/SENIOR (PAPER-SETTER) AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF PAPER-SETTERS IN EXAMINATIONS

WHERE NO SEPARATE BOARDS ARE APPOINTED (AS INDICATED IN 3 ABOVE).

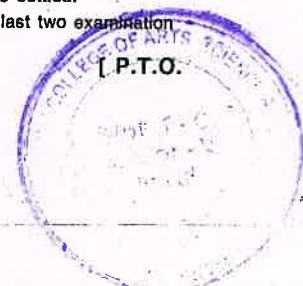

4. The Chairman/Senior paper-setter shall convene all the meetings.
5. It shall be the duty of the Chairman/Senior Paper-setters to distribute the work of paper-setting among the paper-setters. Paper-setters shall forward the manuscripts of the question-papers set by them to the Chairman/Senior Paper-setters and see to it that they reach him at least five clear days before the date of the meeting.
6. The Board of Paper-setters shall finalise their papers in joint consultation at a meeting of the paper-setters to be held in the University Office*.

TO ALL PAPER-SETTERS.

7. The Chairman/Senior Examiners and paper-setters shall take all the necessary precautions for the maintenance of secrecy of the draft questions submitted by them to the Chairman/Senior paper-setter.
8. Paper-setters are further instructed to give instructions to the candidates regarding the number of questions to be attempted by the candidates entitling them for full credit in the papers. In this connection, their attention is invited to the recommendations made by the relevant Boards of Studies and ad-hoc Committees.
9. Paper-setters are requested to bear in mind-(i) that the question-papers they set ought to contain questions covering, as far as possible, the whole of the prescribed syllabus and all the texts prescribed (including such alternative texts as may have been prescribed**), (ii) that they should be clearly worded with no ambiguity, (iii) that they must not be more numerous or more difficult than a well prepared candidate could answer fully in the time allowed and (iv) that they ought to give a reasonably wide choice. Question-papers of previous years would indicate the broad nature of the questions expected. Paper-setters should note that sudden changes of a drastic nature in the general set-up of the papers are very undesirable, (v) Paper-setters are also requested to take precautions that the question paper set ought not to be identical with the prelim paper they set ought of the college where they teaching.
10. When a paper is to be divided into two sections, a specific instruction should be given to that effect. The marks assigned to each question must be entered on the question-paper.
11. Each question should be numbered and typed or written out carefully in a legible hand one below the other on the slips of foolscaped papers and on one side only. The slips so completed should be arranged in a consecutive order. If there are alternative to a question, all the alternative questions must be written on the same slip as that of the original questions with the word 'OR' above each alternate question and must

* Paper-setters shall sign a certificate in the printed proforma to the effect that the papers have been so settled.

** Paper-setters will be supplied with copies of relevant courses, list to texts and question-papers of the last two examinations in the subject to be set by them.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO PAPER-SETTERS AT THE EXAMINATIONS IN ALL THE FACULTIES

1. Paper-setters shall abide by these instructions and treat them, and such other instructions (and information) as may be issued to them thereafter, as confidential.
The Board of Examinations reserve the right to with hold or reduce the remuneration earned by Paper-setters or cancel their appointments for negligence of any kind on their Part in carrying out the work entrusted to them, in accordance with the instructions issued to them.
2. Paper-setters shall submit three different sets of question-papers (and not copies), each in a separate cover for each paper in the subject.
PROCEDURE PRESCRIBED FOR THE SETTLING OF QUESTION-PAPERS WHERE SEPARATE BOARDS OF PAPER-SETTERS AND EXAMINERS ARE APPOINTED AT THE FIRST YEAR, SECOND YEAR AND THIRD YEAR B.A., B.Sc., AND B.COM. EXAMINATIONS.
3. Each Paper-setter shall submit to the Chairman in a sealed envelope ten questions for each full paper by the date to be fixed in that behalf and communicated to the Paper-setters by the Chairman. The Chairman shall convene a meeting of all the Paper-setters in the subject for discussing these questions. The Chairman alone shall settle the question-papers finally and shall submit them to the University, the Chairman being at liberty to include or not to include any of the questions submitted by other Paper-setters.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CHAIRMAN/SENIOR (PAPER-SETTER) AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF PAPER-SETTERS IN EXAMINATIONS

WHERE NO SEPARATE BOARDS ARE APPOINTED (AS INDICATED IN 3 ABOVE).

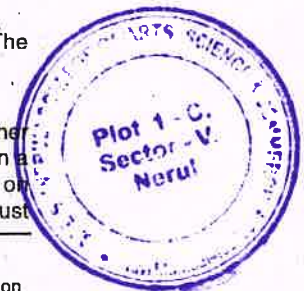

4. The Chairman/Senior paper-setter shall convene all the meetings.
5. It shall be the duty of the Chairman/Senior Paper-setters to distribute the work of paper-setting among the paper-setters. Paper-setters shall forward the manuscripts of the question-papers set by them to the Chairman/Senior Paper-setters and see to it that they reach him at least five clear days before the date of the meeting.
6. The Board of Paper-setters shall finalise their papers in joint consultation at a meeting of the papersetters to be held in the University Office*.

TO ALL PAPER-SETTERS:

7. The Chairman/Senior Examiners and paper-setters shall take all the necessary precautions for the maintenance of secrecy of the draft questions submitted by them to the Chairman/Senior paper-setter.
8. Paper-setters are further instructed to give instructions to the candidates regarding the number of questions to be attempted by the candidates entitling them for full credit in the papers. In this connection, their attention is invited to the recommendations made by the relevant Boards of Studies and ad-hoc Committees.
9. Paper-setters are requested to bear in mind-(i) that the question-papers they set ought to contain questions covering, as far as possible, the whole of the prescribed syllabus and all the texts prescribed (including such alternative texts as may have been prescribed**), (ii) that they should be clearly worded with no ambiguity, (iii) that they must not be more numerous or more difficult than a well prepared candidate could answer fully in the time allowed and (iv) that they ought to give a reasonably wide choice. Question-papers of previous years would indicate the broad nature of the questions expected. Paper-setters should note that sudden changes of a drastic nature in the general set-up of the papers are very undesirable, (v) Paper-setters are also requested to take precautions that the question paper set ought not to be identical with the prelim paper they set ought of the college where they teaching.
10. When a paper is to be divided into two sections, a specific instruction should be given to that effect. The marks assigned to each question must be entered on the question-paper.
11. Each question should be numbered and typed or written out carefully in a legible hand one below the other on the slips of foolscaped papers and on one side only. The slips so completed should be arranged in a consecutive order. If there are alternative to a question, all the alternative questions must be written on the same slip as that of the original questions with the word 'OR' above each alternate question and must

* Paper-setters shall sign a certificate in the printed proforma to the effect that the papers have been so settled.

** Paper-setters will be supplied with copies of relevant courses, list to texts and question-papers of the last two examination in the subject to be set by them.

bear the same number as that of the original question. 'Section I', 'Or' 'Section II' should be written above the question with which the particular Sections begins. Slips for drawing-up the questions will be supplied to individual paper-setters. The Chairman/Senior Examiner shall be supplied with the slips for drawing-up the final question-papers and envelopes for enclosing them.

12. Paper-setters are not permitted to submit carbon copies of hand-written question-papers. The office place at their disposal a computer and a cyclostyling machine, if they required, by the Paper-setters.
13. Paper-setters must burn the rough notes or manuscripts, if any of the question-papers, as soon as the later are decided upon and before they are delivered to the Controller of Examinations.
14. The Chairman is requested to note that he is required to hand over to the Controller of Examinations the manuscripts of the question-paper/papers immediately after he has settled the question-paper/papers and the manuscript/manuscripts is/are prepared. In case the setting of the question-paper/papers required more than one day, the paper-setters shall at the end of each day's work hand over to the Controller of Examination all the relevant papers connected with the setting of the papers in a sealed cover. The Chairman and Paper-setter is requested to bring his Identity Card.

Note : Sketch/Diagram/Solution, if any, shall be submitted separately in an envelope provided for purpose, duly sealed.

15. The paper-setters will be supplied with two types of envelopes; an inner envelope, of smaller size, with provision to write code number; and a bigger envelope, that shall contain all the relevant details regarding the examination, subject, paper etc. The manuscript copy of the question-papers shall be placed in the inner envelope, closed and sealed. The sealed inner envelope will then be placed inside the bigger envelope, closed and sealed.
16. The Paper-setters shall use their own seal for sealing the covers containing the MSS-of question-papers.
17. The manuscripts of question-papers shall not carry any signature of Chairman/Paper-setter nor any mark of identification in them. Similarly, the inner envelope, shall not have any marks of identification or writing on it.
18. The Chairman/Senior Paper-setter (or one of the Paper-setters authorised by him) shall deliver to the Contrbller of Examination in properly sealed packets such number of copies of the questionpapers or paper as are required by the Examinations Department between the hours and the dates notified, together with a certificate or certificates (supplied by the office) from the Chairman/Senior Paper-setter who shall state therein that he has personally examined all the copies of the paper found them perfectly legible and that the copies for the different centres are identical. Where the Chairman/Senior Examiner concerned resides outside Mumbai must send the manuscript/manuscripts of question-paper/papers by insured post so as to reach the University Controller of Examinations on or before the appointed dates.
19. The Chairman of the Board of Paper-setters/Senior Paper-setters or the Paper-setters authorised by him, shall correct the proofs of the papers set whenever required by the University. The name of the Paper-setter attending the Press for this purpose shall be communicated to the Controller of Examination in writing, by the Chairman/Senior Paper-setter 25 days before the date of the commencement of the examination. Due notice will be given to the Paper-setter concerned of place where, and the time when proofs would be ready for inspection and correction.
20. WHEN TWO OR MORE PAPER-SETTERS ARE APPOINTED IN A SUBJECT AND THERE IS NO SEPARATE BOARD OF PAPER-SETTERS, THEY ARE JOINTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE WHOLE EXAMINATION WORK IN THAT SUBJECT, VIZ., FOR SETTING THE QUESTION-PAPERS ASSESSING THE ANSWER-SCRIPTS WITH REGARD TO THE SETTING AND DELIVERY OF QUESTION PAPERS. THE SENIOR EXAMINERS WILL HAVE POWERS AND DUTIES SIMILARS TO THOSE OF CHAIRMAN OF A BOARD OF PAPER-SETTERS, AND THE DUTIES OF THE EXAMINERS WILL BE THE SAME AS THOSE OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF PAPER-SETTERS (VIDE INSTRUCTION Nos. 1 TO 19).
21. Paper-setters in various subjects at the different examination are requested to note the following schedule of deductions from the remuneration :—
  - For any question or part of a questions set outside the prescribed syllabus.
  - For any other laps from an act of negligence/ carelessness or misconduct of paper-setters.
  - No remuneration for setting the question paper
  - A fine of ₹ 100/- to be deducted from the remuneration payable.
