Maqsad – An Institutional Social Responsibility Pro

By Vijay Kamble

NERUL: Every academic institution functions with a vision to create a better society; it aims at social emancipation through education. However, today there is a need to adopt other means to respond to the pressing concerns of the society and contribute to change. It is with this view in mind, that the faculty members and students of B.Com. and B.Com. Accounting & Finance of SIES (Nerul) College of Arts, Commerce and Science organized Maqsad – Shop for a Cause, an Institutional Social Responsibility program recently in the college premises.

Maqsad was designed as an initiative to support and contribute to NGOs which worked for various social issues ranging from environmental concerns, women empowerment, healthy living, to the problems of differently abled people. To realize the same goal, an exhibition/sale of the products manufactured by such NGOs was to be arranged, wherein the College facilitated the participating NGOs with the required infrastructure without any charges for the same. Accordingly, various NGOs were contacted and the College received positive response from more than 10 leading NGOs from Mumbai including – Women India Trust (WIT), Bombay Natural History Society (BNHS), Freedom 4 U, Vision & Rescue, Self Esteem Foundation, Aawahani Palak Sangh, Sneha Samridhi Mandal, Sanathan Sanstha, Quran Foundation to name a few. Having confirmed the list of participating NGOs, the organizing team of Maqsad distributed brochures and pamphlets in the campus as also in the vicinity promoting the cause.

In the morning session, the Ashok Vatika (location on the SIES, Nerul campus) festooned with balloons, handmade paper garlands, kites, other drop-downs, and a bright red and yellow walkway, looked ready for the exhibition. Subsequently, the exhibition was inaugurated by Mr. A. K. Sengupta, a mentor to SIES family and champion of social concerns, along with Ms. Sugandha Jha (Coordinator, BCom), Dr. Priyanka Mohan (Coordinator, B.Com A & F) and other teachers. By then, the participating NGOs had laid out an assortment of products – scented candles, embroidered cloth bags, jewelry, soaps, pickle, hand purses, stationary items in the individual colorful canopies allotted to them. To inculcate the enterprising spirit amongst students, few students of BAF showcased their handmade products. Devanshu More, Third year BAF student exhibited his paintings and received amazing response from visitors. To everyone's surprise, buyers started flocking in even before the exhibition was inaugurated, and from then on a steady stream of buyers from within and outside the campus followed until 2:30 p.m. To encourage the endeavor, Dr. Rajashekar Patil, Assist. Professor, Sant Gadge Maharaj College along with a few Nature Club of his college also visited the exhibition and appreciated the efforts of the organizing team of Maqsad.

The exhibition was concluded with almost all the NGOs doing reasonable business within a span of five hours. Quite naturally, the affirmative feedback received from the NGOs and visitors added to the sense of gratification and accomplishment felt by the teachers and students alike for they had helped these NGOs to continue their social service along with its sister publication, Aap is celebrating its 12th Anniversary ANNUAL NAVE SHAHAR will be distributed on the occasion

COMBATTING CLIMATE CHANGE

Venue: Quadrangle and SIESCOMS Auditorium

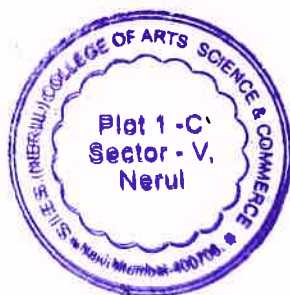

Date: 23rd September, 2019

ISR committee of SIES College organized an event called 'Combating Climate Change' on 23rd September, 2019. The event was divided into two segments, a skit and a competition.

The students took an initiative to completely avoid the use of plastic. Thus, a cloth banner was used to support the plastic ban. The guests for the day were Mr. Abhiraj and Mrs. Neeti (who started the '100 reasons to love India' campaign), Mr. Subhajt Mukherjee (CEO of Green Mission and Ambassador of 'Jal Shakti Abhiyan') and Ms. Neha Singh. The guests were felicitated with plants to promote the idea of planting trees to reduce climate change.

The event started with a skit performed by the volunteers of the committee on how climate change is slowly affecting our day to day life. After the skit, 'Idea Generation', the flagship event, started with lighting of lamp by the guests, convener and the secretaries. Eight teams from four different departments of the college participated in the competition. The teams came up with great ideas to combat climate change. Sana Khan from Msc in Environmental Science won the competition. This was followed by a QnA session with the panelists where students got to interact with them.

The event was an eye opener for the students about their responsibility towards the environment. The event came to an end with a vote of thanks by the convener, Mrs. Nisha Telang.

In the school's assembly hall the students of 7th 8th and 9th had gathered and the session was started with introduction of the topic SELF DEFENCE.

They were asked that what they understand by this term, why is self defencing important in our life. They were explained about this by a skit prepared by our volunteers.

After the skit there was a practical session of self defence where the students were taught how to defend you under different situations. The techniques were taught to the students by one of the volunteer (trained karate).

It was very interactive and students of the school also enjoyed this sessions. After this games were played and talents of the students where showcased.

Two of our volunteer also showed their talents and sang songs. Students enjoyed and gave us a great feedback which motivated us to continue this for the next two days.

The day one was winded up with the distribution of chocolates, and left the school at 11 am.

CSR EVENT AT VISWABALAK KENDRA (NERUL)

15th November 2019

"Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision. Taking the vision of a social event we, the students of the Computer Science department under the guidance of the faculty members conducted the CSR event from our departmental fest

TECHNOVISION 2019 on 15th November 2019. There were around 22 TECHNOVISION team volunteers. The team visited the 'Vishwa Balak Kendra' NGO (Nerul). The Vishwa Balak Kendra also known as "Children Of The World INDIA" provided us with 30-35 students from the 3rd to 6th standard. The children were enthusiastic and eager to learn. Doubtlessly, education is the most powerful catalyst for social transformation. We divided the children into groups according to their school standards. In this current word, computer literacy is must so the team provided computer education to children of 5th and 6th standard by teaching them the basics of the computer like Microsoft Word with the help of computers provided to us by the NGO and by interacting with them in a very friendly manner and tried to explain them easily and effectively. The knowledge was given in a way that would interest the students and help better their skills in a short period of time.

The team visited the Vishwa Balak Kendra on 15th November 2019. The event was embraced by a crowd of around 70 including team and children. As a part of fun activity, the TECHNOVISION committee volunteers taught the other children of the standard 3rd and 4th some basic computer education including the introduction of computer and tried to make the environment around them enjoyable as well as friendly by playing few games with the children. The team members created a special bond with children through various kinds of activities. The team immensely enjoyed the interactions with children. However, overall it was an enriching and fulfilling experience. Lastly, the team gave the children snacks to eat as a peaceful gesture which were enjoyed by the children.

The event came to an end with the vote of thanks by the in-charge of the NGO and thanked the team for their valuable guidance and support to the students and providing their time for the beneficiary of the children. At the end, the children enthusiastically share their amazing experience and the knowledge they received from the team. Finally, it was said by Clay P. Bedford that, You can teach a student a lesson for a day, but if you can teach him to learn by creating curiosity, he will continue the learning process as long as he lives. The team kept an enthusiastic attitude towards working and teaching the students together.

ABILITY IN DIVERSITY

Frames Film Festival is the annual departmental festival initiated by the Mass Media Dept. of SIES (Nerul) College of Arts, Science and Commerce.

On the 3rd of December 2019, the team of Frames took a day out to celebrate 'International Day of Disabled Persons' with children who have to live with their disabilities every single day.

They collaborated with the ETC Centre for Disability in Vashi to spend a day with these adorable kids. The team organized a bunch of fun activities that encouraged the differently abled children to showcase their skills, ranging from dance to gully cricket. Members of the Helen Keller Academy of Deaf and Deafblind were also a part of the inauguration ceremony, arranged by ETC, which witnessed a spectacular welcome performance by the specially-abled kids.

After the show, everyone took part in a silent but effective rally where uplifting slogans were held up on signboards in support of inclusivity of such differently abled children.

On returning back from the rally, the children were split into four groups- the visually impaired, the deaf and mute, the autistic, and the learning disabled. With the guidance of the volunteers from team Frames, they were encouraged to take part in various creative tasks like painting and singing. Famous Bollywood tracks were also played, and though the kids were hesitant to perform at first, they slowly started to enjoy themselves where they nailed all the iconic dance moves instantly. To end it all, the team of Frames also arranged for a large banner on which all the kids gleefully left their palm imprints in bright yellows and reds.

In conclusion, this initiative by Frames Film Festival was a highly successful one as it was initiated with a cause and ended on a strong note stating 'disability shouldn't be an obstacle rather an expression of ability in diversity'.

“GENDER SENSITIZATION AT WORKPLACE”

“Gender Sensitization at workplace” was a one day workshop arranged by the B.Com Department in collaboration with the IQAC Committee

The Workshop was held in the A.V. Room on 1st September 2018, 10 am onwards.

The objective was to promote a holistic development, empowerment and gender sensitization through inspiring initiatives impacting women, forging synergy amongst various participants and creating a conducive environment to impact social change.

The facilitator for the workshop was Ms. Shashikala Mugdal - A Project coordinator and Senior Researcher with Advanced Centre of Women's studies at TISS, along with her was a Co-Facilitator Ms. Aishaanyaa Tewari a Mental Health Professional and Social Worker with TISS.

With a view to ensure effective awareness on women's rights, problems, prospects, sensitization, challenges that will transform and inspire overall development and empowerment of woman. There were 25 participants in the seminar and it was held exclusively for the Teaching and Non Teaching staff.

Before the workshop commenced both the Facilitators were felicitated by our Vice Principal Dr. Koel Roy Choudhury

The Workshop started by making everyone sits in a circle, and there were around 80 postcards which were laid in the centre. The participants had to pick 1 or 2 postcards which resonated with their likings, characters and feeling, and say it out aloud, this exercise was done to analyse self, and let other people know a bit more about selves.

Post this exercise, Ms. Shashikala addressed the various issues faced by women in all walks of life. She spoke about how the sex ratio is skewed in favour of the men and said that gender sensitization cannot be complete without sensitizing the men. She said that although women are visible in the grass root levels, their presence is scarce at the top management. She also raised the issue that women are perpetually excluded from decision making at every step of the ladder, starting from the household to the top layers of policy making.

Ms. Aishaanyaa started her session through a wonderful ppt presentation which was very informative in which she touched various issues related to depression faced by men and women throughout their lives. She spoke about the high stress levels of women due to their dual role of care-takers and career managers. She highlighted the need for early identification and intervention of depression in women dealing with such issues. She spoke at length on mental health of both the genders. She emphasized being happy and satisfied is a basic requirement of every human being.

Post the PPT presentation there was a Tea Break where every participant was encouraged to share their experiences, thoughts, views about discrimination which took place in their day to day lives. Also during this time 10 photographs were displayed in the PPT in which the photographs showed a lot of gender fluidity and people were asked to express their opinion for the photographs.

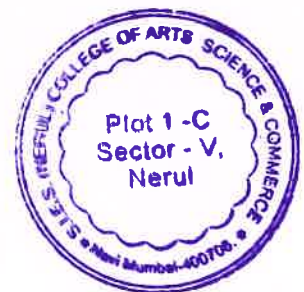

Then the next exercises were the "privilege walks" an experiential activity to highlight how people benefit or are marginalized by systems in our society. There are much iteration of such walks with several focusing on a single issue, such as race, gender, or sexuality. This particular walk is designed with questions spanning many different areas of marginalization, because the goal of this walk is to understand intersectionality. Many people with certain privileges never notice them, because they are so woven into the mainstream that those who have them cannot see them. For everyone, understanding and acknowledging privileges is the key to understand why and how they react and perceive their surroundings.

The last exercise was where 2 groups were made and each and every participant was asked to speak their heart out about the discrimination or the causal sexism faced by them in day to day lives. It was ensured, what was said in the circle stayed in the circle. With this the workshop concluded after 3 hours of intense session and the participants were awarded a certificate of participation.

MAVA SKIT AND Seminar

Event : MAVA Workshop and Skit

Date : 20th February, 2020

An overwhelming skit (street play) along with a mind-altering seminar was conducted at S.I.E.S College of Arts, Commerce, & Science in room no. 410 on 20th February, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. The seminar was headed by Mr. Pravin Thote who runs the MAVA (Men Against Violence and Abuse) – an NGO aimed towards educating people about 'Gender Sensitization'. And accordingly, the topic of both the seminar and workshop was – 'Gender Sensitization'. The Seminar included sub-topics like - Stereotype Gender Bias, Expected role based on gender, Bane of a working woman, Measures that can be undertaken, Probability of combating these stereotypes.

The program began with a wonderful skit which was performed in the ASC College quadrangle by the MAVA Volunteers. It was a tactful effort to deliver the message in a satirical manner which successfully touched the hearts of everyone present. Then, a very open and interactive seminar took place in room no. 410 by Mr. Pravin, who skillfully presented the main topic by initially starting with peeling layer by layer and then explaining the main topic in an understandable manner. He began with creating a sense of introspection among students as to why gender is being looked upon as a huge topic of concern in present India. He elucidated the meaning of 'gender' – biologically – and showed how natural it is for someone to turn out to be a 'Transgender' – who shouldn't be shamed due his biological and physical attribute. Also, he surfed students through the origin of gender dispute and discrimination and gave simple but effective measures which can be implemented right from an individual's home. E.g. To not only help mothers, but also reduce her burden by taking a certain responsibility at home for as long as possible – which would create responsible millennials in the longer run.

It was a wonderful learning experience for students and something, which challenged our age old beliefs and created impact on students' mentality but in a positive way. The Seminar ended after a QnA Round at around 11:30 a.m.
